

The Indiana telephone privacy law effectively addressed and fixed the problem of unwanted telemarketing calls. No further action on your part required.